4TH OF JULY BBQ & PARTY

Monday, July 4

Celebrate Independence Day by sharing your thoughts on patriotism, and enjoy an All American BBQ Cookout on the patio, while letting freedom ring through karaoke!

RESIDENT SPOTLIGHT

RUTH S.

Ruth was born in Queens, NY, to Irish and German Jewish immigrant parents. She was married in 1959 and has two children and two grandchildren. She worked in foster care, at Behavioral Care Hospital, and helped people with addictions or in crisis. Ruth faced many hardships in her life, but realized it made her stronger and smarter. Her advice is to “Face your fears, be open to life and learn what it teaches you.”

EXTRAORDINARY PEOPLE, EXTRAORDINARY NEWS

Dear Gentle Reader, One of our newest residents here is Almasy Khano, who comes from a family that generation after generation, have produced many intelligent and innovative people including engineers, entrepreneurs, and web designers. Almasy, herself, speaks an impressive four languages!

Following straight behind in his families' footsteps is Almasy's grandson, Zayn. Whispers have it that he may even be a genius! What else would you call a two year old that had learned to read?! And now, at the age of six, Zayn knows all the states, their capitals, and almost all the countries that surround the globe! Almasy tells us that besides being remarkably intelligent, her grandson is also very caring and loving, too.

Watercolor
The Masters of History

Wednesday, July 13 at 2:30 & 3:30 pm

In recognition of World Watercolor Month, discover the painters who were considered the Watercolor Masters of History. Who was your favorite? Perhaps it Winslow Homer, who actually began as an illustrator for Harper's Weekly, probably the most popular publication of his time. Or was it was the German painter, Albrecht Durer, most famous for his 1503, "A Young Hare"? Learn more about the renown watercolor artists who have inspired painters throughout the years! Following our discussion, you'll have the opportunity to paint your own watercolor masterpiece emulating the artist that most inspires you!

Gazing into the Heavens

Learn all about the heavens with us this month in our Astronomy Classes. We'll cover two astronomy events coming to our skies this month.

Wednesday, July 13 at 11:00 am

The next full moon to rise is on July 13 and is actually the biggest and the brightest supermoon of the year. It's also called a "Buck Moon" as it orbits closer to Earth than any other full Moon this year.

Thursday, July 28 at 11:00 am

The Delta Aquarids meteor shower will peak today, although it will continue steadily into August. These showers can sometimes reach 20 meteors every hour!

Freedom is one of the deepest and noblest aspirations of the human spirit.
