RESIDENT SPOTLIGHT

KAREN G.

Karen was born in Glendale but grew up in Burbank. She enjoyed taking road trips with her mother which consisted of going to Reno, Mount Rushmore, and the Grand Canyon. When she was just 19, she joined the Burbank Choral Club and later took vocal lessons with Dr. Hartgrave who directed the Metropolitan Opera. Karen also square danced in various Glendale clubs. She graduated from Burbank High School and went on to become a CNA.

A nine year-plus Evergreen resident, Karen enjoys word puzzles, Bingo, Mexican and Italian food, singing in her church choir, and spending time with her long-time best friend Claudia. She also enjoys listening to oldies and watching medical shows like "Grays Anatomy". Karen is very friendly and loves welcoming all of our new residents!
